Johnson Brown and Mr. Black

Words by JACOB S. ROSENBERG

Music by HERMAN A. HUMMEL

I fell in love with bad luck Brown, The ver - y eve he came o - ver to town,
On Fri - day eve the thir - teen - th day, Brown came to town, he's un - luck - y I'll say,

Brown up - on my word is my twen - ty third, My thirteenth Brown ain't he a bird,
Wait - ed for his pay all next Sat - ur - day, Brown said he lost it on the way,

Mis - ses John - son my name ten times, thir - teen times Brown, bad luck it rhymes
Right face, left face, my fist struck Brown my heel made Brown turn round,.....

I'll wait for pay that's what I'll do, Twen-ty three goes Brown bad luck ski-doo.
He made me mad well, I should say, Brown skipped out of town he galloped a-way.

CHORUS

No more Johnson and no more Brown, Keep off my steps or I'll do what I've done,

Mine the on-ly Brown, John-sons there aint none they're scared to stay they all left town.

Mis-ter Black, he's a mil-lion-aire Said so him-self, well, I de-clare,

Black you're mine Im so proud of you, Twenty three goes Brown bad luck ski-doo.
